

ABL2000 LIGHTWEIGHT

The ABL2000 Lightweight Recoilless Disruptor is suitable for render safe procedures on IED's of medium size.

The ABL2000 Lightweight is made of titanium, making it extremely portable. It is ideal for personnel to carry, or for use on small Remotely Operated Vehicles (ROVs) on which payload weight needs to be kept to a minimum.

It is a multi-shot device, capable of many firings and requiring minimal maintenance. Training can be carried out on this disruptor without causing any detriment to its service performance.

The ABL2000 Lightweight Recoilless Disruptor has been subject to a series of formal tests against representative targets, sensitive explosives and pressure measuring systems. This ensures reliable and consistent disruptive performance with complete recoilless operation, minimum collateral damage, and maximum operator safety.

This Disruptor can be supplied with additional facilities to provide enhanced capabilities. With a simple substitution of the front barrel assembly and use of the correct projectile, the Disruptor is able to operate as a De-Armer, capable of firing a range of solid projectiles such as chisels, slugs and forks.

The ABL2000 Lightweight Recoilless Disruptor is manufactured in accordance with the ISO 9001 quality standard. Prior to dispatch, all items of equipment are subjected to an overpressure proof test and flaw detection.

This Disruptor is supplied as a complete kit, containing all ancillary items required for use and operator maintenance, other kit variations are available to suit your needs.
